

Black Void Nirvana is a piece with influences as vast as progressive metal, goth rock, ethnic flamenco, and the classical tradition, all thrown together to see what comes out of it. Riffs upon riffs, played with a passionate rock'n'roll ass kickin' attitude. Combine that with theatrical gestures more familiar from rock surroundings and questions of afterlife and you get the picture – or not. / Jennah Vainio (2009)